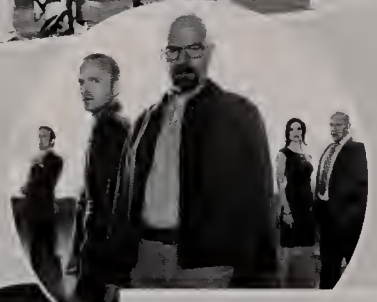
The phrase "Boston Strong" only continued to intensify this fall, when the Boston Red Sox won the World Series against the St. Louis Cardinals on October 30th, 2013. "From worst to first", this victory was their second World Series victory against the Cardinals, and third World Series victory in the last ten years.

February 7th - February 23rd, the world watched the Winter Olympies in Sochi, Russia. Both the event and fury at Russia's anti-gay sentiment surrounding the event united many across the globe.

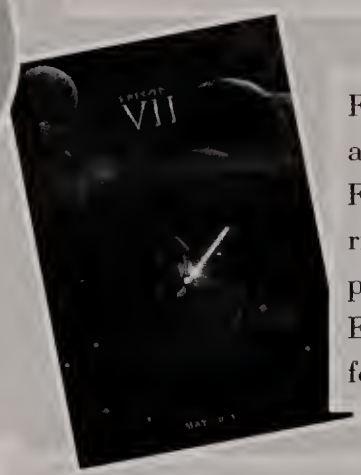


Breaking Bad

2013-2014 saw the final seasons of two beloved television shows. One, AMC's Breaking Bad, ended September 29th, 2013, and told the story of a chemistry teacher Walter White (Bryan Cranston) who, aided by former student Jesse Pinkman (Aaron Paul), began cooking and selling meth after being diagnosed with terminal lung cancer.

The second show, NBCs How I Met Your Mother, ceased it's decade-long run on March 31st, 2014. The eventful hour long finale finally showed audiences how widowed Ted Mosby (Josh Radnor) had met his wife, and angered many fans with its numerous plot twists.

Verizon was the #1 phone service provider in the United States



For the first time in 10 years, many of 2013 and 2014 news stories concerned Star Wars. From Disney's purchase of the franchise's rights to a new movie, and now the movie's production, Star Wars's newest installment, Episode VII, was a popular conversation topic for many.

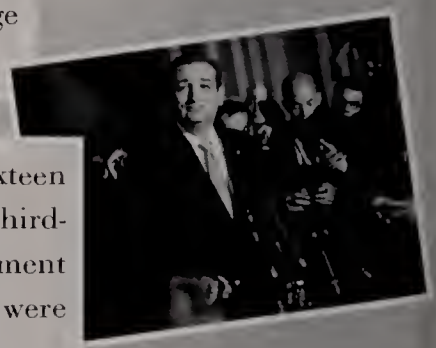
NETWORK NEUTRALITY

Much of this and last year featured a massive dispute over the concept of Net Neutrality, in which cable and internet providers want to be able to dictate how fast or slow websites function depending on how much both the website and the customer pays. Though Net Neutrality is supposed to prevent this, a January 2014 court ruling eliminated its only existing protections, and the Federal Communications Commission is yet to make a next move as people and large companies such as Netflix continue to protest.



From October 1st 2013, the United States Federal Government entered a sixteen day shutdown after Congress failed to decide on 2014's funding. This was the third-largest government shutdown in United States history, and many government employees were sent on temporary leave. Only select government services were available during this time.

Headlines were made across the globe in Spring 2014 as a Malaysian plane headed for Beijing mysteriously disappeared. A multinational effort spanning 11 countries has been made in an effort to find it, however since it's largely possible the plane landed in the Indian Ocean, this could take several months.

In 2014, protests and civil unrest in Ukraine over whether or not Crimea should become part of Russia turned violent as Russian troops and police attacked civilians. It was widely feared that this would lead to a civil war, and soon the US, UK, Italy, Germany, Japan, France, and Canada became involved. Some believed it may lead to a third World War. As of May 2014 Crimea belongs to Russia, however the conflict is still developing as Ukraine is left in chaos.

Winter 2014 was so cold that they had to create a new term for it. The "Polar Vortex" featured some of the coldest temperatures in recorded history, and January 7th alone set cold records in 49 states. Temperatures in the Midwest reached -37 degrees, with wind chills making it seem even more frigid. The cold even reached Florida, with Tampa's temperature dropping to 34. In New England, it caused trees' foliage to not return until late April.

In school: my last performance of Drama Club when I was given a special "going away" card from my cast mates after 4 years of participation. Out of school: In my senior year of high school, I traveled to Madrid, Toledo, and Segovia in Spain with Señ#ora Wattengel. I learned so much about Spanish culture, food, music, etc. Because of that trip, I was inspired to one day learn Spanish. Also, since that trip, I have not complained about walking or climbing stairs once.

The best memory that I have is the first day in Medical when I got to see my friends and I was happy I got into the shop I wanted.

Victoria Brown

My senior memories are meeting amazing new people and of course having my Cosmo family for all four years.

Robert Carnerio
Bob, Rob the Mob, "A God", Frank Shinatra, Ted Baker
Insert witty memory, quote, or joke here Other than that, these four years weren't necessarily fun. Considering we haven't had any kind of trip. Quite a few jobs have been ripped from me. Overall, 7.5/10.

Natasha Castillo
Tasha
When I hit John the sophomore in my shop in the face with a cream pie.

Brian Chermely
I started here freshman year not knowing anyone. As time went by I gained many friends. I played sports and participated in extra curricular activities. Now that I'm graduating, I want to thank all of my friends, teachers, and coaches from my four years here. Last, I would like to thank my family for all their support.

All the times in shop I said random things that made no sense, but were entertaining to hear. So many good times going to concerts and having adventures. All the times in junior year in shop with Ms. Hutchinson. Coming to school extremely tired from going to concerts, being in mosh pits and counting the bruises after.

Amanda Cruickshank
Manders
My memory for senior year is meeting all of my friends at this school. I also want to thank my shop teachers for everything they have done for me. Even though we all have our own life plans, I want to wish everyone luck with anything they do in life. Senior year has been filled with amazing memories and I'm sad to let it end, but even though I have to, I'm happy to have met these awesome people. Doing the chicken dance with Chauvin on press side. Slicing my thumb open with an Xacto knife. "Guys the Titanic clearly dumped the tea into pearl harbor". Go class of 2014 :)

John Dailey
Fishing, dirtbiking, FTB, offroading, Co-Op. One of the best moments was leaving at 2:10. My favorite teachers were Mr. Curran, Mr. Bachand, Ms. St. Amand, Ms. Desrochers, and Ms. Remmes.

Joseph Dailey

Being the PHCC All Star for my plumbing shop. Scoring a hat trick and having the most points in our lacrosse league's first championship game in my sophomore year. Dirtbiking, fishing, and hanging out with friends throughout my years of school.

First of all R.I.P. Andy Kaufman. You will never be forgotten. We had so many great times in shop. The chemistry of us guys in metal fab was great. Some of the funniest and coolest guys I've ever met. Long live the skip day. Football was great too. Nothing changed who I am for the better more than the game of football. All of the coaches were great mentors for me and I will look up to them for the rest of my life. I am so happy I went to this school.

Emily DiTullio
In shop we got a big order of salmon and learned how to break it down, and when Mr. S. cut the head off, we all played with it and named it Gerry. During Senior Project week, brown water came down from the ceiling and almost ruined my product. I remember how quiet I was in high school.

David Doherty
Dubya
The best memories are the ones I cannot remember.

Matthew T. Donovan
Dunny
Lagos on the lunch stairs freshmen year. Sports after school with the guys. The BP football comeback game. Dream-Team with Mr. Pedro. Winning Lacrosse League & Vocational Championship. Having the most helpful teachers and coaches; Coach Mazolla, Coach Murphy, Mr. Rhodes, and Mrs. Taintor. My family being there all throughout high school, helping me become the person I am today.

Benjamin Dundas
Beebq
I remember the time I ran into the bleachers at full speed during a game of capture the flag in gym class when I was a junior. Also, the last day of junior year when my friends and I went to a friend's house and watched movies from a hot tub. Then there was the time we had a Christmas party in senior year.

SENIOR Memories

Danielle DuPont
Danny, Seth
There are many memories that will always remain in my heart when I think back to my high school years later in life. Creating everlasting bonds with the girls in my Girl Scout troop and gaining three "sisters": Shannon, Emily, and Sam. Dealing with the best group of boys I have ever met on the lacrosse team. Randomly singing in the middle of shop as we all hear Mr. S. shout "Don't quit your day job!" I have learned many lessons over the past few years that I will always keep with me. When looking back on high school, I will always smile.

Kevin DuVally
Wolverine, Wolf-Man, Kev
I think my best memories from here are my friends and teachers. My friends helped boost my morale and my teachers helped me with my work and helped me stay organized instead of a disheveled mess. My shop also holds memories since I've learned a lot in the graphics industry, and it is an industry I would love to work in for a long time. I guess failures can also be considered good memories since I have learned from them and they have made me smarter.

Ronelle Erickson

Lots of stuff to remember. Ryan and his popcorn, his computers/computer though in general he was a gold mine. D&D was some fun stuff too. Good times playing cards with the guys, too. Skills was pretty cool. Senior Project was a lot of fun. Oh, and I've had some of my best ideas this year with friends, like some really cool ideas.

Quinn Forbes

Winning the league in lacrosse for three years in a row, and the championship for two.

Meeting new people and making new friends. Going to movies with my friends. Joining the Ski Club. Driving to school. Getting perfect attendance junior year. Being in my favorite shop and getting certified in Microsoft Office. Getting a summer job at Stop & Shop in 2011. Going to the Museum of Science for a field trip in sophomore year. Getting accepted to Bristol Community College. I'm still trying to get on Survivor to compete on the show.

Evan Fox

My best high school memory was in my junior year when the Class of 2014 won the Cougar Cup, the school bonfires, and the awesome times I had in shop.

Joseph Galligan

"We only wear pink on Wednesdays!" "The limit does not exist" "I need a 30" piece...cuts up an 8' board" "That tape cost $2 a roll and you're wasting it!" The time we were flicking nails across the shop and one landed on the jointer blades. When Kyle got the paper airplanes (2 of them) stuck in the light. 180 question take home test turned one period revolt. "Move your freaking feet!"

David Gavel
Dave
I remember those times in shop where it was all chaotic and stuff. It annoyed me a lot, but I was made a better man because of it. Thank you, CIS for all of those times we had.

Maria Gerwatowski
My high school memories are hanging out with my friends.

Kyle Gillis
Junior year I broke my foot in the last football game of the season. I had to be pulled out of school for over a month so that my foot could heal up and be operated on. When my friends heard about my misfortune they got a card signed by the entire team for me. This was a very great get well gift that helped me get through that tough month.

Anna Hall
Playing softball and shop.

Bradley T. Hoderny
B-Swaggy
My greatest memory was taking tools from a senior in my shop and hiding them in another student's tool pouch. The senior in my shop at the time proceeded to take his tools back, making my friend cry.

Ray Jarvis
The speedball tournament in senior year.

Harley Keith
Jesus, Afro-Ninja, Caveman, Interjection
Always remember Andy Kaufman. Backpack. AP Calculus. Spiderman is real. Welding sculpture. The dragon. The twelve-string. Tanking in soccer. Assassinating. Fencing. Waffles in shop. Tea everyday. A few Pokémon tournaments. Junior skip day. Camp Jori. The growth of my artistic abilities. Charmander hat. Bass in the pit orchestra. Winston. Dunkin.

Drew Kelley
The Dark Tide Project. End of Story.

Nate Lagos
Fell down the stairs 3rd week of freshman year and Matt Donovan still makes fun of me to this day. #NateLagos

Good times in the HVAC shop, Team Building exercises because we're dysfunctional.

Joseph Long

This one time I was driving people when I wasn't supposed to be and one of the girl's dads punched my window out and punched me in the face for no good reason. I just gave her a ride home and I got punched and the window to my Jetta was smashed. Also, I had tattoos before they were cool.

McKenzie Lonsdale
Grumpy
Fishy school bus, losing David in shop, Google image searching, the countless parties and shenanigans in shop, napping throughout freshman and sophomore year, the nasty apple, SLOTHS!, countless car crashes, the constant snacking, fake hair, hot potato in Durfee's, making amazing memories with my best friends!

Aaron McLaughlin
Nothing. Didn't like school.

Hannah McNeill
Leaving the gym after sports and watching the sunset.

Tyler McWilliams

The best memories I'll ever remember in my life will be the four years I've spent here at Tri-County. I've had my first real friends here who I plan on seeing even after high school. I've matured from middle school (sort of) thanks to the experiences I've had here. I helped design a robot that climbs towers, and designed buildings-THAT FLY. Thank you Engineering Class of 2014, each and every one of you has effected my life in a positive way. Thank you all for coming into my life, and I hope for the best in your futures.

Kyle Mee

Ashley Monterotti

My favorite memories of high school were doing volleyball and ski club with my two best friends Lauren Hall and Kendall Sarapas.
Megan Mulcahy

Varsity soccer was definitely an interesting experience over the last four years. Basketball turned around 360 degrees from freshman year to senior year. I love my family on the court and off and couldn't have asked for a better senior year. I wouldn't have made it through these last four years without my family, especially my mom. Looking back on the last four years it has been a great ride and went by very fast but I wouldn't change any of it for a second.
John Nicastro
Jake
In school: The legendary "Dark Tide" project, most days in shop; for better and for worse. Out of school: Concerts, completing the US Army Basic Combat Training at 17 years of age.

Went to the bonfire in freshmen year. I had Mrs. Markham 3 times for a teacher. Did Biology MCAS for two years. I had 1st lunch all four years. Got into my first choice of shop, Culinary Arts. Did Native American Cooking for my senior project. Had Mr. Scipione for sophomore and senior year. Perfect attendance, and I also went to Disney World in sophomore year. Had the best teacher in the world, Mrs. W. Met my best friends, Hannah Galante, and Kayla Stoddard.
Geoffrey Penchuk
Geoff, Geoff Wrentham, Geoff-Woo, G-off, Geoffers.
Tri-County was easily the best four years of my life. I met some of my best friends, made a shield out of lasers, operated a future NBA star, pressed some buttons, repeatedly made a fool of myself, made some squares, got paid to make bigger squares, wrote some satirical lists, co-starred in Engineering: The Musical, avoided work, took naps, and had a wonderful time. To Engineering 2014: Even in the bad times I wouldn't trade you for the world. Good luck in the real world. Oh yeah, I learned stuff too.
Andrew Robinson
A-Rob
Junior year when we played the Bristol Plymouth football team and beat them with seconds to spare. The Dream-Team in Mr. Pedro's class in junior year that consisted of Matt Donovan, Kyle Gillis, Troy George, Nick White, and I. Being in the rowdy crowd at the girls' volleyball and basketball games.
Christopher Santos

All the good times in Construction, like when Daryll drilled his sweatshirt. Receiving my 2nd Shop Excellence Award. Going through the college application process, and being accepted to Wentworth.

When I fell asleep in shop and woke up to everyone laughing at the way I fell asleep. My only production of each day was counting the dots on the ceiling.
Paige Sullivan
Working at Newbury Comics, telling Radhika all my secrets, changing my hair every month, marrying Jamie Lacasse and being with Chris Pacheco.
Shea Sullivan
Going to states for Volleyball. It was the farthest that Tri-County volleyball has ever gone before, and I got to lead our team to victory. Playing with the team this year was the most memorable time from senior year.
Vanessa Sullivan
My memory from my high school experience is being in Cosmetology, which changed my life career.
Emily Toomey
Em, Toomstone
Doing 3 seasons of cross country with Coach Ronan and taking us to Dairy Queen.
Holly Turner

Being part of "The DQ Crew". When half the class used my Dark Tide project. Driving to South Dakota sophomore year, meeting friends across the country, countless roadtrips / going to 45 concerts in a year. The Boneyard & Landry's house after work. AP English class ("Dead? Dead? ...Dead?!?), anything and everything about Drama Club. Finally having self-confidence and being happy.
Rodrigo Verissimo

Joshua Winters

Drew Zaiter
Drew Chainzzz, Drew Peacock, Psycho D
Winning the 2014 Mayflower Athletic Conference Golf Tournament and getting a hole-in-one sophomore year. Pat Lynch and I telling everyone to "check it" while we did our hand shake in the middle of the hallway. Senior year in Calculus, I had no idea what to do on a math quiz and said that if I managed to get a 100 that I would twerk on the wall to celebrate. I got a 100, I twerked, and my classmates were kind enough to make it rain $1 bills on me.
